EXCELLENCE
SET IN STONE

STONETECH

Founded in 1975 in Heraklion, Greece, Stonetech is a vertically integrated company specializing in the trade and processing of natural stones and surfaces.

With two production units, we deliver comprehensive services—from blocks and slabs to custom cut-to-size processing.

We own and have exclusive access to five Greek marble quarries, ensuring consistent quality and material availability. In parallel, we maintain priority partnerships with both Greek and international quarries.

With extensive experience in global large-scale projects, we offer tailored solutions to architects, landscape designers, contractors, construction firms, and other professionals.

Our 360° service spans the entire process—from quarrying to final installation.

Our portfolio includes luxury hotels, commercial buildings, wellness centers, private residences, decorative objects, and bespoke creations.

Stonetech is the exclusive distributor of Neolith in Greece, continually expanding its portfolio with cutting-edge surface materials.
