

The Egyptian National Marble and Granite Company is one of the largest marble and granite processing companies in the Middle East. Its factory is located in the Sinai Peninsula. All its equipment is imported from the Badrini Company. It owns 11 marble quarries, all producing the finest Egyptian marble from the Sinai Peninsula.