

Fravizel, a company with 40 years of experience, develops, manufactures, and provides support for equipment and machinery in the stone, mining, forestry, and industrial sectors. Present in over 60 countries, we are continuously committed to innovation and excellence in the engineering and metalworking industry. Our goal is to take Portugal to the world through disruptive solutions and innovative technologies for these sectors.